

MAARTEN & CROIX

H O M E S T A G I N G

I hope this message finds you well! I wanted to personally share some exciting news with you. After a recent change in direction, I have embarked on a new adventure and started my own staging company, Maarten & Croix. Our name, Maarten & Croix, is a tribute to the two islands that my family is from, representing the convergence of two homes into one.

At Maarten & Croix, we specialize in mid-century modern staging and are thrilled to offer a curated collection of high-end pieces, ready to bring a fresh, sophisticated look to any space. Our goal is to create environments that are not only stylish, but also deeply inviting. With each home we stage, we aim to create environments that are warm, inviting, and rich with the sense of belonging. Our hope is that each home feels like the perfect place for buyers to begin anew.

Reflecting on our past collaborations, I am incredibly grateful for your support and encouragement. Working with you has been a significant part of my journey and it has led me to this exciting new chapter. I could not have reached this point without the trust and opportunities you've given me over the years.

As I step into this new role, I am eager and ready to take on new staging projects. If you have any upcoming needs, or know someone who could benefit from our services, we would love the opportunity to work with you all.

Once more, thank you for your continued support. They say when life gives you lemons, make lemonade – or in my case, start a new staging company!

I look forward to the possibility of collaborating with you in the future,

Warm regards,
